

Re:Public

Empowering People.

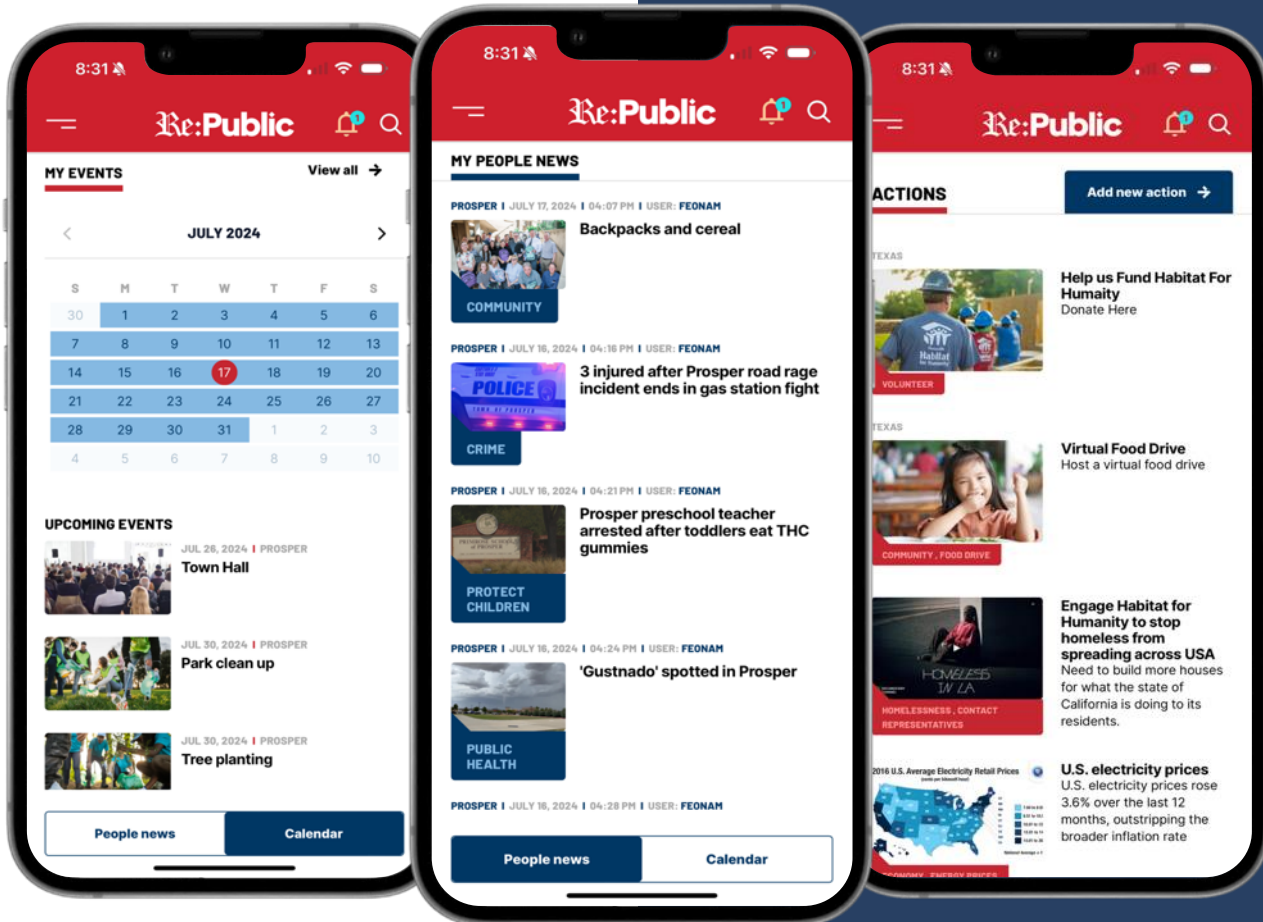

Impact:

- Reach a large number of your local population.
- Increase participation and funding.
- Accomplish more for less.

“We cannot walk alone. And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead. We cannot turn back.”

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Re:Public is a new kind of social media that gives organizations powerful tools to inform, organize, and act.

3 Pillars of Re:Public

Inform:

- Members can write Articles
- Anyone can read the articles for free.
- View and contact your representatives.

Organize:

- Members can create Events.
- A powerful tool to bring people together.
- Physical or Virtual Events.

Act:

- Members can create Local, Statewide, or National Actions.
- Actions bring you to the Organization's website.
- Power in numbers.

Re:Public is focused on local:

- Viewers enter their zip code and are fed information that is local to them.
- Local is the most important factor in our daily lives.
- Public health, environmental quality, education, safety, and housing are all local issues.

Actions create positive change.

- People want to act but don't know how. Re:Public makes it easy.
- Actions created by organizations are fed to readers daily, focusing large numbers of people on the same thing at the same time.
- Daily Actions on Re:Public can help create positive change and drive traffic to your website.

Re:Public

Benefits to Organizations:

- Reach a wide range of new people.
- Drive traffic to your website.
- Gain more volunteers.
- Increase funding.
- Use the event calendar to invite the community to events.
- Promote events by writing articles about them.
- Create action items (get food donations, get volunteers, get funding...).
- Add your organization to our local registry, a digital billboard for your organization.
